

TWO SELECTED FOR COMMUNITIES IN SCHOOLS SCHOLARSHIPS

Two local high school seniors have been awarded the Vicky Slusser Scholarship sponsored by Communities In Schools of Rowan County. The scholarship is open to Rowan Salisbury Schools graduating seniors who have attended a school served by CIS during their K-12 career.

Rachel Morales Mendoza

Rachel Morales Mendoza will graduate Rowan County Early College with both her high school diploma and an Associates of Arts degree. She attended Knox Middle School where she was served by CIS. Her activities included volunteer work and membership in the Junior Civitan club. She also has worked at Custom Glass Products.

Rachel has been accepted at Pfeiffer University where she intends to study Biology and Health & Exercise Science.

Khalita Person

Khalita Person will graduate Salisbury High School with her high school diploma. She also attended Knox Middle School where she was served by CIS.

Khalita's activities included participating in Key Club and Club Red and volunteering at Rowan Helping Ministries. She was a member of both Track and Volleyball teams and worked part-time at Bojangles.

Khalita has been accepted and plans to attend North Carolina A&T University in the fall.
