Who Needs Volunteer Certification?

Volunteers requiring certification for Communities In Schools of Rowan County or Rowan-Salisbury Schools are unpaid individuals assisting with school children as:

- Mentors
- Tutors
- Lunch Buddies
- Field Trip Chaperones
- After-School Program Volunteers

All Volunteers listed above must be trained and certified as a Volunteer, as mandated by Communities In Schools of Rowan County and Rowan-Salisbury School System. Certification includes a BIB Criminal Background Check and completion of the on-line or Communities In Schools in-class child abuse prevention training.

TRAINING INFORMATION AND LINKS CAN BE FOUND AT www.cisrowan.org

Steps to Volunteer Certification

1. Select your date to be trained from the list in this brochure and email volunteer@cisrowan.org or call 704-797-0210 to enroll in your selected training class.
2. Go to the following link and enter your background check information:
<https://bib.com/secureVolunteer/RSSS/> Bring a copy of your “met guidelines” email or a copy of your “Secure Volunteer” card to training.
3. Complete the on-line child abuse training at <https://www.preventchildabusenc.org/services/trainings-and-professional-development/rrcourse>. Print the “Certification of Completion” and bring a copy to training.
4. Bring a copy of your “driver’s license” to training class.

*Allow 2 hours for training.

 Items not completed prior to training can be completed during training.
